

Tamagawa-Berlin Philharmonic Members
Education Program 2019

“The Power of Singing”

Hosted by Tamagawa University & Academy

Date: November 18th, 2019

Children's Program

- Mozart "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, 1st Mov."
- Schubert "Heidenröslein"
- Questions from Children

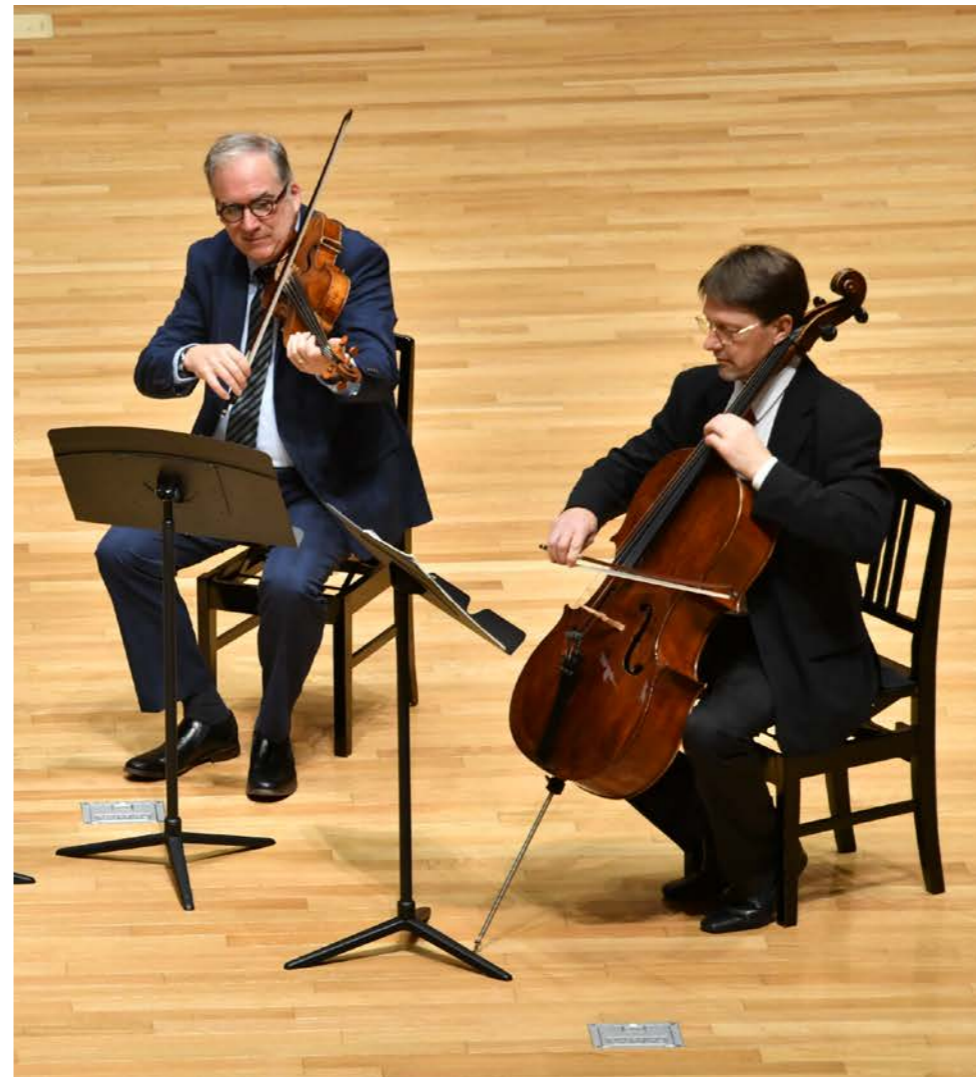

Amadeus Heutling (1st Violin)

Raimar Orlovsky (2nd Violin)

Matthew Hunter (Viola)

Dietmar Schwalke (Cello)

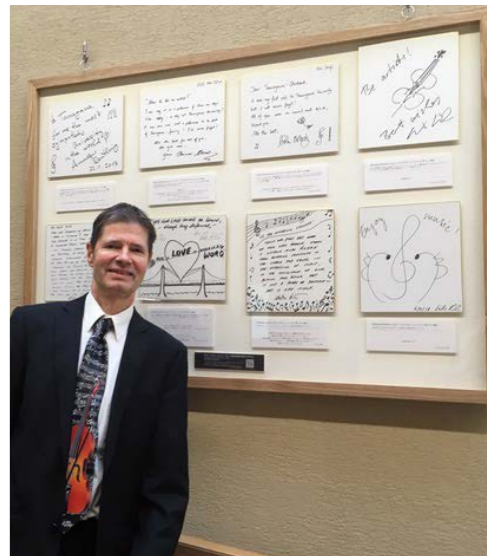

University Program

- Japanese folk song by Tamagawa University Choir
- Beethoven string quartet opus 18 No.4 in C minor
- Ola Gjeilo "The Ground"
- School song

November 18, 2019
 ♪ Tamagawa University: the perfect balance between tradition and progress I love you ♪
 ♪ Amadeus ♪

Thanks a lot for invitation for 90th anniversary of Tamagawa University. I was so impressed about the school choir, so impressed by the Japanese folk songs I've never heard before! Let's keep in contact Berlin Phils + Tamagawa University.
 All the best,
 Amadeus Heutling
 2019, Nov 18th

18. NOV 2019
 BEGIN EACH DAY WITH A SONG
 AND YOUR LIFE WILL BE GUIDED BY LOVE.
 END EACH DAY WITH A PRAYER
 AND YOUR SLEEP WILL BE FILLED WITH PEACE.
 SHARE YOUR LIFE WITH OTHERS
 AND YOUR HOURS SHALL BE FILLED WITH JOY.
 LOVE · PEACE · JOY, AND IT ALL BEGAN WITH A SONG.
 BEST WISHES, MATHIAS HRS

Congratulations for the anniversary!
 Wonderful! You very impressed by the singing of the choir!
 Nov. 18th 2019

Best wishes to your 90th anniversary and your future
 All the best
 2019/11/18

Congratulations to Tamagawa University for 90th Anniversary. I am so happy to be your partner, all the best
 2019-11-21
 Amadeus Heutling

Tamagawa-Berlin Philharmonic Members

Education Program 2019

“The Power of Singing”

Edited by Tamagawa University and Academy, Tokyo, Japan

Published by Tamagawa University and Academy, Tokyo, Japan

Printed by Docu Tech Station, Tamagawa University, Tokyo, Japan

Published on December 15th, 2019

© 2019 Tamagawa University and Academy